City of Destin Opioid Settlement Spending and Implementation Plan

Amount awarded to the City of Destin $3,132.72

Under Schedule B, approved uses, letter "K"-Training of the Florida Opioid Allocation and Statewide Response Agreement. The City of Destin desires to provide training and equipment desired to purchase with the city's opioid monies:

Item	Amount	Quantity	Total
Fentanyl Response Kit	$25.19 each	20	$503.80
Online Training Course	$20.00 each	16	$320.00
Training Device	$20.50 (pack of 5)	5	$102.50
Pelican Storage Case	$405.95	1	$405.95
Hard Storage Case for individual Narcan	$114.99	16	$1,839.84
		TOTAL	$3,172.09

The Destin Opioid Implementation Plan will reduce the impact of the opioid crisis in this community by providing training and equipment to the city's Code Compliance Officers who patrol through the community and interact with the residents and thousands of tourists on a daily basis.

The training and equipment will provide a level of protection for Destin Code Compliance Officers and allow them to administer the lifesaving Narcan should they come in contact with a person experiencing an opioid overdose. This capability will increase Destin's level of professional service to its community.
